

What you give for Allah

Remains

“We have made sacrificial camels [and cattle] among the symbols of Allah, in which there is [much] good for you. So pronounce the Name of Allah over them when they are lined up [for sacrifice]. Once they have fallen [lifeless] on their sides, you may eat from their meat, and feed the needy—those who do not beg, and those who do. In this way We have subjected these [animals] to you so that you may be grateful. ”

[Qur'an | Surah Al-Hajj | 22:36]

Qurbani is more than a sacrifice

it is a gift that lasts.

What you give for Allah does not end on Eid day.

It continues in the reward written for you, the gratitude of hungry families, the joy of children, and the relief brought to homes in hardship.

This Eid al-Adha, fulfil your Qurbani with UKC4C and help families facing hardship in Lebanon, Jordan, and beyond.

Your sacrifice provides meat, dignity, hope, and blessings that remain.

Why Lebanon Needs You This Eid?

- Families still struggle with inflation and unemployment
- Many children lack proper nutrition
- Refugee and vulnerable communities need urgent support
- Meat is now unaffordable for many households
- Your Qurbani may be the only meat some families receive this Eid.

Be Part of a Wider Impact

Qurbani is a season of devotion, generosity, and compassion. Your support can:

- Feed a struggling family
- Bring joy to children on Eid
- Support widows, orphans, and vulnerable households
- Deliver nourishment where meat is rarely affordable
- Extend relief beyond Eid through chilled and canned Qurbani
- Strengthen communities facing hardship

Each sacrifice becomes part of a wider impact — one that continues through the families it feeds, the dignity it restores, and the lives it uplifts.
